Ryan Eddleston is a Wales based cinematographer/dop. After graduating from Cardiff University in Journalism & Film, Ryan began his career shooting documentaries, and in 2014 was double nominated for his cinematography for AMERICAN INTERIOR and THE POET WHO LOVED THE WAR: IVOR GURNEY, winning the BAFTA Cymru for the latter.

In 2019 Ryan has had films premiere at Tribeca Film Festival – Dolly Wells’ GOOD POSTURE, BFI London Film Festival - Jessica Hynes’ THE FIGHT and two films at the Edinburgh Film Festival – Jamie Adams’ BALANCE NOT SYMMETRY and BITTERSWEET SYMPHONY.

Ryan is adept at capturing unapologetically strong performances in often intimate and vulnerable environments, particularly with leading women. A talent that was particularly evident in his work on Alice Lowe’s directorial debut PREVENGE.

In addition to a slew of features, short films, commercials and television. Ryan has also shot popular music videos for artists including Raleigh Ritchie, Gruff Rhys and Biffy Clyro.
