Ryan is adept at capturing unapologetically strong performances in often intimate and vulnerable environments. A talent that was particularly evident in his work on Alice Lowe's directorial debut PREVENGE.

In 2019 Ryan has had feature films premiere at Tribeca Film Festival – Dolly Wells' GOOD POSTURE, BFI London Film Festival – Jessica Hynes' THE FIGHT and was also nominated for the BAFTA Cymru for his cinematography for THE FIGHT, and Peter Bradshaw also named him in the "Best cinematographer" picks of the year for his work on THE FIGHT.

Ryan also worked with Alice Lowe, along with Saatchi & Saatchi, on a campaign of commercials for Direct Line called 'Survive the Horror', the car insurance film played before Joker in cinemas and won Ad of the day upon its release.

He also shot JUDITH a 45 minute film with director Grant Gee that screened on the opening night performance of 'Bluebeard' at the Munich Opera House, as its prelude, and worked on the GAZZA documentary directed by Sam Collins which is currently in post.

In 2020 Ryan worked with Director Leigh Whannell on the UK pickups for THE INVISIBLE MAN and Jamie Adams' LOVE SPREADS was official selection at Tribeca Film Festival.

Post-lockdown, Ryan has shot the feature film PHEA directed by Rocky Palladino that is currently in post, the film LESBIAN directed by Rose Baker for Random Acts that will be broadcast on Channel 4, and commercials spanning 6 films with Director Gabriel Arrahnio for Deloitte, that are in post for repost for release in the new year.
